PRNewswire-FirstCall
SAN FRANCISCO

AMB Property Corporation, a leading owner and operator of industrial real estate, will host an analyst and investor conference on Monday, November 4 and Tuesday, November 5, 2002 in Los Angeles, California. On Monday, the Company will present an overview of its investment and operating strategies and moderate a panel of its Development Alliance Partners(R). On Tuesday, AMB will join Arden Reality, Inc. on a co-hosted tour of the companies' Southern California properties.

Stockholders and interested parties may listen to a live broadcast of the presentation, scheduled to begin at 4:15 p.m. PDT, by dialing 800-500-0311 and using reservation code 176103 and may simultaneously access the slide presentation from the "Investor Center" of the Company's website at www.amb.com. Please visit the website at least fifteen minutes early to register, download and install any necessary software. A replay of the presentation, including slides, will be available shortly after the presentation until January 6, 2003 on the Company's website.

AMB Property Corporation is a leading owner and operator of industrial real estate in North America. As of September 30, 2002 AMB owned, managed and had renovation and development projects totaling 97.2 million square feet (9.0 million square meters) and 1,032 buildings in 27 markets. AMB invests in industrial properties located predominantly in infill submarkets of major hub and gateway distribution markets. The Company's portfolio is comprised largely of High Throughput Distribution(R) facilities -- industrial properties built for speed and located near airports, seaports and ground transportation systems.

AMB's press releases are available on the Company website at <http://www.amb.com> or by contacting the Investor Relations department toll-free at 877-285-3111.

This press release contains forward-looking statements about business strategy, future leasing activities, acquisition opportunities and future plans, which are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements involve numerous risks and uncertainties and should not be relied upon as predictions of future events. The events or circumstances reflected in our forward-looking statements might not occur. In particular, a number of factors could cause AMB's actual results to differ materially from those anticipated, including, among other things, defaults on or non-renewal of leases by tenants, increased interest rates and operating costs, AMB's failure to obtain necessary outside financing, difficulties in identifying properties to acquire and in effecting acquisitions, AMB's failure to successfully integrate acquired properties and operations, AMB's failure to timely reinvest proceeds from any such dispositions, risks and uncertainties affecting property development and construction (including construction delays, cost overruns, AMB's inability to obtain necessary permits and public opposition to these activities), AMB's failure to qualify and maintain its status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code, environmental uncertainties, risks related to natural disasters, financial market fluctuations, changes in real estate and zoning laws, risks of doing business internationally and increases in real property tax rates. AMB's success also depends upon economic trends generally, including interest rates, income tax laws, governmental regulation, legislation and population changes. For further information on these and other factors that could impact AMB and the statements contained herein, reference should be made to AMB's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including AMB's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2002.
