

AMB Property Corporation(R) Announces Green Joins Company as Managing Director, Global Client Services

PRNewswire-FirstCall
SAN FRANCISCO

AMB Property Corporation(R) , a leading global owner, operator and developer of industrial real estate, today announced that James W. Green has joined the company as managing director, global client services.

In this newly-created position, Green oversees global fund raising for AMB Capital Partners, LLC, and reports to John T. Roberts, Jr., AMB's president, Private Capital.

"Jim brings more than 20 years of strategic business development, capital raising and client relationship building experience to AMB. His wealth of knowledge and expertise in global capital fund raising is an important addition to our management team as we pursue our efforts with new and existing co-investment partners. We are pleased to have him join our team," said Roberts.

Green was most recently at JER Partners, the private equity commercial real estate investment division of the J. E. Robert Companies. He served as managing director and co-global head of Capital Markets & Client Relations, responsible for the company's capital markets teams, investor relations and capital raising. Prior to JER Partners, Green was at Citi Property Investors, overseeing institutional marketing and client relations. In addition, Green was a principal of AEW Capital Management L.P., serving as REIT product and relationship manager.

Green holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston College.

Some of the information included in this press release contains forward-looking statements, such as those related to Green's job responsibilities and performance, which are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, and you should not rely on the forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. The events or circumstances reflected in forward-looking statements might not occur. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. Forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise and we may not be able to realize them. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect our analysis only and speak only as of the date of this report or the dates indicated in the statements. We assume no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: defaults on or non-renewal of leases by tenants, increased interest rates and operating costs, our failure to obtain necessary outside financing, re-financing risks, risks related to our obligations in the event of certain defaults under joint venture and other debt, risks related to debt and equity security financings (including dilution risk), difficulties in identifying properties to acquire and in effecting acquisitions, our failure to successfully integrate acquired properties and operations, our failure to divest properties we have contracted to sell or to timely reinvest proceeds from any divestitures, risks and uncertainties affecting property development and construction (including construction delays, cost overruns, our inability to obtain necessary permits and public opposition to these activities), our failure to qualify and maintain our status as a real estate investment trust, risks related to our tax structuring, failure to maintain our current credit agency ratings, environmental uncertainties, risks related to natural disasters, financial market fluctuations, changes in general economic conditions or in the real estate sector, changes in real estate and zoning laws, a downturn in the U.S., California or global economy, risks related to doing business internationally and global expansion, losses in excess of our insurance coverage, unknown liabilities acquired in connection with acquired properties or otherwise and increases in real property tax rates. Our success also depends upon economic trends generally, including interest rates, income tax laws, governmental regulation, legislation, population changes and certain other matters discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008.
