

AMB Property Corporation(R) Launches Corporate Sustainability Report and Website

PRNewswire-FirstCall
SAN FRANCISCO

AMB Property Corporation, a leading global owner, operator and developer of industrial real estate, today released an online corporate sustainability report and launched a website (www.amb.com/sustainability) dedicated to sharing information on the company's sustainability initiatives and global best practices. These efforts highlight the company's commitment to its industry-leading corporate governance, sustainability practices, employee policies and charitable activities. This website serves as a resource for customers, stockholders, investors, employees and other interested parties seeking information about AMB's global operations.

"AMB has a long-standing commitment to environmental responsibility, financial transparency, employee development and community involvement," said Hamid R. Moghadam, AMB's chairman & CEO. "We're enthusiastic about sharing our sustainability initiatives and expanding these positive impacts on our global business. Our approach to sustainability has been guided by AMB's commitment to enduring excellence; it is this mission that will continue to drive progress and lead the way for future improvements."

"Incorporating sustainable features into our buildings improves operating efficiencies and creates a competitive advantage for AMB and our customers," said Steven Campbell, AMB's senior vice president, director of Global Environmental & Development Services. "In addition, we offer our customers a significant opportunity to reduce their carbon footprints by minimizing transportation costs. Our infill focus is about locating our customers closer to their customers, ultimately reducing environmental impacts while increasing efficiencies."

AMB adhered to the guidelines of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), an international, multi-stakeholder network through which a recognized sustainability reporting framework has been developed. The company's report was externally assured by Two Tomorrows, a world-leading sustainability consultancy, and meets GRI "B+" reporting level requirements.

Some of the information included in this press release contains forward-looking statements, such as those related to our expectations for CSR initiatives, which are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, and you should not rely on the forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. The events or circumstances reflected in forward-looking statements might not occur. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. Forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise and we may not be able to realize them. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect our analysis only and speak only as of the date of this report or the dates indicated in the statements. We assume no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: defaults on or non-renewal of leases by tenants, increased interest rates and operating costs, our failure to obtain necessary outside financing, re-financing risks, risks related to our obligations in the event of certain defaults under joint venture and other debt, risks related to debt and equity security financings (including dilution risk), difficulties in identifying properties to acquire and in effecting acquisitions, our failure to successfully integrate acquired properties and operations, our failure to divest properties we have contracted to sell or to timely reinvest proceeds from any divestitures, risks and uncertainties affecting property development and construction (including construction delays, cost overruns, our inability to obtain necessary permits and public opposition to these activities), our failure to qualify and maintain our status as a real estate investment trust, risks related to our tax structuring, failure to maintain our current credit agency ratings, environmental uncertainties, risks related to natural disasters, financial market fluctuations, changes in general economic conditions or in the real estate sector, changes in real estate and zoning laws, a downturn in the U.S., California or global economy, risks related to doing business internationally and global expansion, losses in excess of our insurance coverage, unknown liabilities acquired in connection with acquired properties or otherwise and increases in real property tax rates. Our success also depends upon economic trends generally, including interest rates, income tax laws, governmental regulation, legislation, population changes and certain other matters discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008.
