

AMB Property Corporation(R) Leases 149,000 SF in Europe Developments

PRNewswire-FirstCall
SAN FRANCISCO

AMB Property Corporation® , a leading owner, operator and developer of global industrial real estate, today announced it has leased approximately 149,000 square feet (13,840 square meters) in its Europe development portfolio and stabilized its Hamburg development pipeline during the second quarter.

Development leasing activity includes:

- 86,000 square feet (7,990 square meters) leased to a leading European transport and logistics company with a global customer base. The customer renewed its existing lease and expanded into this additional space at AMB Hausbruch Industrial Center. This development is proximate to the Altenwerder Terminals of the Port of Hamburg and approximately 10 kilometers from the Hamburg city center. Following this transaction, the 426,552 square foot (39,630 square meters) Hamburg development portfolio is fully stabilized.
- 63,000 square feet (5,850 square meters) in its AMB Fokker Logistics Center 3A to UTi Nederland BV, a subsidiary of UTi Worldwide Inc., a global company specializing in client-specific supply chain solutions. This lease expands UTi's global footprint with AMB into the Amsterdam market, in addition to 12 leases in the U.S. The facility is adjacent to Amsterdam Airport Schiphol.

"Our customers throughout northern Europe continue to seek modern distribution facilities to improve the efficiency of their supply chain networks," said Mo Barzegar, AMB's managing director, Europe. "We are pleased to accommodate both target customers."

As of March 31, 2010, AMB's portfolio in Europe totaled approximately 14 million square feet (1.3 million square meters) of operating and development properties.

Some of the information included in this press release contains forward-looking statements, such as the occupation of AMB Hausbruch Industrial Center A and AMB Fokker Logistics Center 3A, which are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, and you should not rely on the forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. The events or circumstances reflected in forward-looking statements might not occur. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. Forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise and we may not be able to realize them. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect our analysis only and speak only as of the date of this report or the dates indicated in the statements. We assume no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: changes in general economic conditions in California, the U.S. or globally (including financial market fluctuations), global trade or in the real estate sector (including risks relating to decreasing real estate valuations and impairment charges); risks associated with using debt to fund the company's business activities, including refinancing and interest rate risks (including inflation risks); the company's failure to obtain, renew or extend necessary financing or access the debt or equity markets; the company's failure to maintain its current credit agency ratings or comply with its debt covenants; risks related to the company's obligations in the event of certain defaults under co-investment venture and other debt; risks associated with equity and debt securities financings and issuances (including the risk of dilution); defaults on or non-renewal of leases by customers or renewal at lower than expected rent or failure to lease at all or on expected terms; difficulties in identifying properties, portfolios of properties, or interests in real-estate-related entities or platforms to acquire and in effecting acquisitions on advantageous terms and the failure of acquisitions to perform as the company expects; unknown liabilities acquired in connection with the acquired properties, portfolios of properties, or interests in real-estate-related entities; the company's failure to successfully integrate acquired properties and operations; risks and uncertainties affecting property development, redevelopment and value-added conversion (including construction delays, cost overruns, the company's inability to obtain necessary permits and financing, the company's inability to lease properties at all or at favorable rents and terms, and public opposition to these activities); the company's failure to set up additional funds, attract additional investment in existing funds or to contribute properties to its co-investment ventures due to such factors as its inability to acquire, develop or lease properties that meet the investment criteria of such ventures, or the co-investment ventures' inability to access debt and equity capital to pay for property contributions or their allocation of available capital to cover other capital requirements; risks and uncertainties relating to the disposition of properties to third parties and the company's ability to effect such transactions on advantageous terms and to timely reinvest proceeds from any such dispositions; risks of doing business internationally and global expansion, including unfamiliarity with the new markets and currency and hedging risks; risks of changing personnel and roles; risks related to suspending, reducing or changing the company's dividends; losses in excess of the company's insurance coverage; changes in local, state and federal regulatory requirements, including changes in real estate and zoning laws; increases in real property tax rates; risks associated with the company's tax structuring; increases in interest rates and operating costs or greater than expected capital expenditures; environmental uncertainties; risks related to natural disasters; and our failure to qualify and maintain our status as a real estate investment trust. Our success also depends upon economic trends generally, various market conditions and fluctuations, and those other risk factors discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009.
