

AMB Property Corporation Renews Its Global Unsecured Revolving Credit Facility

PR Newswire
SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12, 2010 /PRNewswire/ -- AMB Property Corporation (NYSE: AMB), a leading global owner, operator and developer of industrial real estate, today announced the early renewal and expansion of one of its senior unsecured revolving lines of credit in the amount of $600 million, an increase of $50 million.

The four-year credit facility includes a multi-currency component, under which funds can be drawn in U.S. dollars, yen, euros and pounds sterling. The line of credit, which matures in March 2014, may be extended at AMB's option for one year and can be increased to $800 million within the next 30 months. Pricing for both the U.S. dollar and multi-currency components is based on the credit rating of AMB's long-term debt and is currently 185 basis points over the applicable LIBOR index, with a 35 basis point annual facility fee.

"There was strong demand for our new credit facility, with lender commitments from 15 financial institutions," said Thomas S. Olinger, AMB's chief financial officer. "We continue to have access to the capital markets at competitive pricing due to the strength of our balance sheet, as well as the quality of our lender relationships. This credit facility aligns with the global reach of our business and further strengthens the company's liquidity to accommodate our growth plans."

J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated jointly arranged the facility for a syndicate of 15 U.S. and international banks; JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is the administrative agent; J.P. Morgan Europe Limited is the administrative agent for alternative currencies; Bank of America, N.A. is the syndication agent, PNC Bank, NA, The Bank of Nova Scotia and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. are documentation agents; and Compass Bank, US Bank, NA and Union Bank, N.A. are the managing agents.

Some of the information included in this press release contains forward-looking statements such as statements related to the pricing of the credit facility, exercise of the extension option and accordion feature, access to the capital markets at competitive pricing, and our growth plans, which are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, and you should not rely on the forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. The events or circumstances reflected in forward-looking statements might not occur. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "intends," "plans," "pro forma," "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. Forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent on assumptions, data or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise and we may not be able to realize them. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect our analysis only and speak only as of the date of this report or the dates indicated in the statements. We assume no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: changes in general economic conditions in California, the U.S. or globally (including financial market fluctuations), global trade or in the real estate sector (including risks relating to decreasing real estate valuations and impairment charges); risks associated with using debt to fund the company's business activities, including refinancing and interest rate risks (including inflation risks); the company's failure to obtain, renew, or extend necessary financing or access the debt or equity markets; the company's failure to maintain its current credit agency ratings or comply with its debt covenants; risks related to the company's obligations in the event of certain defaults under co-investment venture and other debt; risks associated with equity and debt securities financings and issuances (including the risk of dilution); defaults on or non-renewal of leases by customers or renewal at lower than expected rent or failure to lease at all or on expected terms; difficulties in identifying properties, portfolios of properties, or interests in real-estate related entities or platforms to acquire and in effecting acquisitions on advantageous terms and the failure of acquisitions to perform as the company expects; unknown liabilities acquired in connection with the acquired properties, portfolios of properties, or interests in real-estate related entities; the company's failure to successfully integrate acquired properties and operations; risks and uncertainties affecting property development, redevelopment and value-added conversion (including construction delays, cost overruns, the company's inability to obtain necessary permits and financing, the company's inability to lease properties at all or at favorable rents and terms, and public opposition to these activities); the company's failure to set up additional funds, attract additional investment in existing funds or to contribute properties to its co-investment ventures due to such factors as its inability to acquire, develop, or lease properties that meet the investment criteria of such ventures, or the co-investment ventures' inability to access debt and equity capital to pay for property contributions or their allocation of available capital to cover other capital requirements; risks and uncertainties relating to the disposition of properties to third parties and the company's ability to effect such transactions on advantageous terms and to timely reinvest proceeds from any such dispositions; risks of doing business internationally and global expansion, including unfamiliarity with the new markets and currency and hedging risks; risks of changing personnel and roles; risks related to suspending, reducing or changing the company's dividends; losses in excess of the company's insurance coverage; changes in local, state and federal regulatory requirements, including changes in real estate and zoning laws; increases in real property tax rates; risks associated with the company's tax structuring; increases in interest rates and operating costs or greater than expected capital expenditures; environmental uncertainties; risks related to natural disasters; and our failure to qualify and maintain our status as a real estate investment trust. Our success also depends upon economic trends generally, various market conditions and fluctuations and those other risk factors discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009.
