SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Prologis, Inc. (NYSE: PLD), the leading global owner, operator and developer of industrial real estate, today announced that Prologis European Logistics Partners Sarl (PELP) purchased 11 buildings in the United Kingdom. PELP is a 50/50 joint venture between Prologis and Norges Bank Investment Management (NBIM). This is PELP's first acquisition since its formation in March.

The high-quality distribution facilities, totaling approximately 2.45 million square feet (227,000 square meters), are located in the West London, the South East and Midlands markets of the UK.

"This acquisition is a unique opportunity to purchase high-quality assets in the United Kingdom that complement PELP's existing portfolio," said Gary Anderson, CEO, Prologis Europe & Asia. "Demand for logistics infrastructure in the UK is rising at a time when the construction of new facilities is at a historic low. These strategically-located properties complement our existing portfolio and will allow us to better meet the needs of our customers."

With this acquisition, PELP's portfolio includes 206 Class-A logistics facilities totaling 51.2 million square feet (4.8 million square meters) in Europe.
