

Prologis announces redemption of 3.00% Notes due 2026

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Prologis, Inc. (NYSE: PLD) announced today that Prologis, L.P. will redeem all of its outstanding 3.00% Notes due June 2, 2026 (CUSIP Number 74340XBB6, ISIN XS1072516690 and Common Code 107251669, the "bonds"), following which the bonds will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange. The redemption price is estimated to be at a price equal to 102.1% of the principal amount of the bonds outstanding, which includes interest accrued to the redemption date for an aggregate payment of approximately €1,021 per €1,000 in principal amount issued and outstanding as of the redemption date (estimated using a current German government bond rate). Interest on the principal amount shall cease to accrue on and after the redemption date, which is January 9, 2026.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The statements in this document that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about the industry and markets in which we operate as well as management's beliefs and assumptions. Such statements involve uncertainties that could significantly impact our financial results. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "aims," and "estimates" including variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements, which generally are not historical in nature. All statements that address performance, events or developments that we expect or anticipate will occur in the future—including statements relating to the expected redemption price and the delisting of the bonds—are forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Although we believe the expectations reflected in any forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, we can give no assurance that our expectations will be attained and, therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that may affect outcomes and results include, but are not limited to: (i) international, national, regional and local economic and political climates and conditions; (ii) changes in global financial markets, interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; (iii) increased or unanticipated competition for our properties; (iv) risks associated with acquisitions, dispositions and development of properties, including the integration of the operations of significant real estate portfolios; (v) maintenance of Real Estate Investment Trust status, tax structuring and changes in income tax laws and rates; (vi) availability of financing and capital, the levels of debt that we maintain and our credit ratings; (vii) risks related to our investments in our co-investment ventures, including our ability to establish new co-investment ventures; (viii) risks of doing business internationally, including currency risks; (ix) environmental uncertainties, including risks of natural disasters; (x) risks related to global pandemics; and (xi) those additional factors discussed in reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by us under the heading "Risk Factors." We undertake no duty to update any forward-looking statements appearing in this document except as may be required by law.
